Ms. Kathy Tessin
Chief Human Resources Officer
Muscogee County School District

Ms. Tessin:

Regretfully, I must resign, as of March 2, 2018, from my position with Rainey-McCullars School of the Arts. I intend to run for a position on the Muscogee County Board of Education, and the ethics regulations require that I not be an employee at the time of qualification. Qualifying begins Monday, March 5, 2018. I was not aware until yesterday that this was the case.

I have enjoyed working with Dr. Williams at Rainey-McCullars. It is a great school and the students are amazing. I will say that I am perfectly willing to work in a volunteer capacity if that is acceptable. There are some students that I work with on Fridays in the makerspace at the school, and there are students in an online chemistry class that I tutor on an as-needed basis.

Should I not be successful with the election, I would appreciate the opportunity to re-employ with the school district in some capacity. I love education and would sincerely appreciate it.

Thank you for the opportunity.

Sincerely,

Michael H. Edmondson, Ph. D.
